- And work with various stakeholders such as WIOA in providing services to Tinian employers.

CHALLENGES

The greatest challenge moving forward in FY 2026 is the economic impact on individuals looking for employment opportunities in a shrinking economy. The data we collect in addition to enforcement initiatives will show both the government and private sector's struggling to function in an economy absent its main source of revenue which is tourism. As the CNMI find ways out of this predicament, the department is encouraged to assist both employers and individuals however and whenever it can.

It is a period of transition and change.
